

Albany Creek National Seniors

National Seniors

Australia

TRIVIA ANSWERS FOR MARCH 2018

1	The Irish have a tri-coloured flag of orange, white and green, what do they represent?	The Orange represents the protestants, the Green represents the Catholics, and the White represents HOPE that they will find peace between them
2	Which non-sensical word was created by a Dublin man in a bet to see if he could create and spread a new word around town in 48 hours?	Quiz
3	In what location is it rumoured that leprechauns bury their pot of gold?	At the end of the rainbow
4	Where did the term "Paddy Wagon" come from?	If the drunk Irish were arrested, they'd all say their names were Paddy
5	Is the potato native to Ireland? True or False	FALSE – Sir Walter Raleigh, a British explorer, brought the potato to Ireland in 1589
6	TRUE OR FALSE – The Irish birthday tradition is to turn a child upside-down and bump their head on the floor for the number of years they are.	TRUE – Plus one more for good luck!
7	Easter Island belongs to which South American country?	Chile
8	What colours are associated with Easter?	Purple and yellow
9	The idea of the Easter Bunny was originated in Germany in the 1700s – but it was not a rabbit at first. What was it?	A hare
10	The popular dish 'Angelino' is enjoyed at Easter each year in Italy, but what is it?	Roasted Lamb